Clark & Bradshaw, P.C. offers a full range of estate planning tools, from simple wills to complex trusts and tax planning options. In addition, we are available to assist in estate administration, with comprehensive experience in all areas of probate.

Clark & Bradshaw provides services in the area of elder law, that is, the counseling and representing of seniors, the disabled, their families and their advocates about healthcare and long-term care planning, public benefits, surrogate decision making, legal capacity, and the disposition and administration of estates.

It also includes assistance and counseling regarding insurance, housing, employment, and retirement. The firm strives to address the following concerns: disability planning using powers of attorney, trusts, guardianships, conservatorships, and representative payees; healthcare decision making using advance medical directives; housing options including in-home care, adult day care, assisted living facilities, nursing homes, hospice care, and continuing care retirement communities; paying for long-term care; Medicaid asset protection planning; long-term care insurance planning; bill paying and care management assistance; and trust administration.

Clark & Bradshaw provides services in other areas: Bankruptcy (creditor), business law, commercial civil litigation, contracts, real estate, business and corporate matters and personal injury.
