Arleigh Burke Pavilion of Vinson Hall Retirement Community offers Intermediate Skilled Nursing. The facility is part of a continuing care retirement community (CCRC) in McLean, Virginia. The Healthcare Center features person-centered care for forty-nine private pay residents, for whom military affiliation is NOT required. Using a team approach to person-centered care and services means that emphasizes knowing residents' likes and needs. Ongoing assessments allow staff to optimize care plans, and residents have the freedom to customize their menus and snack selections. Residents engage in activities that boost their enjoyment of everyday life. Exercise options, such as strength training with a licensed professional are included at no extra charge. The capacity is 49 beds.

You do not have to be a resident of Vinson Hall Retirement Community to take advantage of nursing care.
