Fairview Center is a Community and Senior Center. Recreation programs at Fairview include an after-school program for youth ages 6-17, a summer camp program, ceramics and arts programs, and programs for adults ages 50 +. Activities include activities such as cards, games, billiards, crafts, luncheons, educational programs and blood pressure screenings. Special activities include ping-pong, bridge, ceramics and dancing.

Senior Programs are 9:30 am-1 pm Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Pick up a copy of the Activity Guide at the Templeton Senior Center or the Miller Center at 301 Grove Street.

Van transportation is available for seniors as well as the publishing of a monthly newsletter.
