Blue Ridge Christian Home at Bealeton provides residential and assisted living assistance to 36 seniors who need limited help with their day-to-day activities. Accepts non-ambulatory residents. Those looking to maintain an independent lifestyle can lease one of the homes located on the property. For residents who need a higher level of care, they offer spacious and comfortable rooms located within the campus's main building. From eating assistance to medication reminders, the staff provides senior care services tailored to each resident's needs.
