The Alzheimer's Association Mid-South Chapter Newsletter is delivered through email. This publication is produced quarterly for the 85-county area served. If you would like to sign up for this free publication sent an email to tiffany.cloud-mann@alz.org and you will be added to the mailing list.

The Alzheimer's Association offers dozens of fact sheets and brochures. The publications are organized by topics and developed in collaboration with Association subject matter experts, outside consultants and other authoritative sources. Click here to review the publications.

The Association also maintains a library which has a variety of educational materials (brochures, videos, audiotapes and books) on topics related to Alzheimer's disease and related disorders. To learn more about the library, call 800-272-3900.
