Bending Tree is an all volunteer company and always need volunteers to help the instruction in the classroom or become an instructor.

Volunteers also are needed for people with many different kinds of business skills from as simple as making phone calls to working on events planning, marketing, and business development. You will find the best thing about being a volunteer is the fellowship of people of all ages, all devoted to helping other people find out about the wonderful moving meditation of tai chi. Join us.

Bending Tree is now part of Tai Chi East-West Alliance (TEA).
