Recycled Equipment and Devices Donated for Independence (REDDI) - This medical equipment exchange program provides rehabilitation equipment to qualified adults. Equipment provided can be canes, crutches, walkers, wheelchairs, hospital beds, power wheelchairs, and bathroom equipment. The mission is to help provide quality previously owned mobility equipment to enhance independence and quality of life for people with disabilities.

Application and requested documentation must be submitted in order to be eligible for the equipment; Equipment will be made available only to individuals with an approved application.

Donations are needed. The recycling program accepts donations by the public and organizations, of gently used rehabilitation equipment. The equipment is then cleaned, repaired and distributed to qualified individuals.
