Family Resource Center offers temporary, safe shelter for victims of domestic and sexual violence and their children. The shelter can accommodate 20. The location remains undisclosed. In the shelter clients receive supportive counseling, access to community services, assistance with goal setting and participate in a support group. Length of stay is based on individual need.

Crisis intervention counselors and trained volunteers staff are available 24 hours a day at the shelter. Individual supportive counseling sessions for victims of domestic and sexual violence can be scheduled with an advocate.
