The goal of Bedford Memorial Hospital (BMH) Volunteer Services is to make every patient's stay as comfortable and problem-free as possible. Patients that may need to wait for services, test results, or they may just want to talk. Volunteers listen, calm nervous family members, ease the anxiety of patients waiting to be admitted and keep families generally informed as to which room a patient is assigned.

To volunteer, download and complete a volunteer application. Mail or schedule an appointment to drop off your application.
