Vinson Hall Retirement Community is a continuing care retirement community (CCRC) offering Independent Living. Vinson Hall is supported by the Navy Marine Coast Guard Residence Foundation (NMCCRF) and dedicated to former U.S. military officers and their families.

Individuals enjoy life at their own pace and schedule, free to garden, take trips, pursue educational opportunities and enjoy music, art and entertainment. Offers fitness programs, health services and pastoral support. The Vinson Hall Independent living residence serves former and retired officers of the uniformed services, their spouses, children and siblings. Other affiliated individuals are welcome on a case-by-case basis.

Vinson Hall Retirement Community, home since 1969 to commissioned military officers ages 62 and older and their immediate family members, is entering into a brand new stage of growth and renovation. The community is now also open to select GS-14 and above federal employees. Occasionally, special exceptions are made for individuals with a strong connection to military or federal government.
