Ann McGee Green at the Anderson, Desimone & Green Law Firm has been an attorney for over 20 years and her practice is in the area of elder law and estate planning, guardianship, estate and trust administration, Medicaid and Special Need Planning.

If you have a disabled family member, special needs planning will ensure that the family member will not lose the cash benefits or government benefits that may be available to him or her, such as supported employment, group housing, job coaches, personal attendant care and transportation assistance.

Call the office for more information about a Special Needs Trust.
