The Peninsula Center for Estate and Lifelong Planning can assist individuals in the areas of estate planning and probate, trust administration, elder law and long-term care planning, business succession planning, estate and trust litigation and family law. Our services include the preparation of estate planning documents such as wills, revocable and irrevocable trusts, powers of attorney, medical directives, living wills, and marital and business agreements; assisting with the probate and non-probate administration of estates and trusts; drafting separation and child custody agreements, reforming trusts, handling beneficiary disputes and providing legal support to fiduciaries, and assisting clients with Veterans' benefits and Medicaid planning, as well as asset protection and tax planning. We strive to establish lifelong relationships with our clients so that when a situation arises, they feel comfortable calling us for guidance and support.
