The House of Blessing is an outreach ministry of Harvest Assembly Church that serves those in need in our community. In addition to providing financial assistance, the House of Blessing provides food to hundreds of families in need every week.

Click here for more information and food distribution hours. All requests are taken by voicemail and a phone interview is required before an appointment for financial assistance is made. Your interview and application are kept confidential.

If you need help, please contact the HOB at 7
