Dogwood Crossing Senior Living offers supportive services and personalized care in a comfortable and secure setting. The community is close to downtown Tazewell and can accommodate 70 residents. Bedrooms available are private suites, smaller private suites, and companion rooms. There are several outdoor sitting areas, some with tables. The great room is a place to watch television or enjoy games and activities. Tazewell County Transit is public transportation close to the community.

Memory care is also available.

Respite care is available if there is space.
