Fort Monroe Community Center offers recreation activities to youth, teens, adults, and seniors. Membership is open to the community and members are able to take part in open recreation activities. Open activities include the game room and gym. Some events at the Center will be free with membership.

Daily passes are required for the pool and costs depends on whether you are youth, adult or senior.

Current classes are karate, Zumba, yoga, ceramics, cake decorating and fresh-cut flower arranging. Classes are subject to change so please call for information.
