Senior Living in Fredericksburg, Virginia

We greet each day with the same focus and purpose at Commonwealth Senior Living at Fredericksburg. “We Listen, We Love, We Care, We Serve.” This is the foundation of the community and its commitment to both residents and their families.

Located in historic Fredericksburg, Virginia, you will find personalized assisted living services offered in our quaint, homelike environment. Unique in the senior living market, there are only 26 suites for a total of 38 residents, which contributes to the intimacy of the space. You will also quickly discover why caregivers are seen more like members of your family here.

24-Hour Support

It is such a comforting and reassuring thought to know that someone is always here if you ever need help. Staff assist with bathing, dressing, managing your medications or performing activities of daily living. The care is tailored to fit your needs and wants 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Although you will know the staff are always here, you still have the benefit of having your own privacy, which we respect.

A Vibrant, Engaging Lifestyle

By practicing person-centered care, staff tailor services to your individualized needs. We encourage our residents to engage with life, and our signature programs offer delightful possibilities. Sharing a delicious meal through our award-winning Farm-to-Table and Today from the Bay dining programs, experiencing different cultures and lifestyles with our Travel the World program, or simply having a meaningful conversation in one of the beautiful outdoor sitting areas, you will find opportunities here for a healthy, full and rewarding life. You will also discover there really can be more hours in a day when you live here—because staff take care of all the maintenance and housekeeping services, so your time is truly your own.

Convenient Location

The community is located only 12 miles from Spotsylvania, Virginia, and less than an hour from either Washington, D.C. or Richmond, Virginia. If additional medical care is ever needed, residents have three excellent hospitals that serve the region. There's also no shortage of sightseeing, including Old Town Fredericksburg, tours of Civil War historical locations, George Washington and Mary Washington's Homes, winery tours and Lake Anna State Park.

Please call to schedule a personal tour today so we can share with you all that we have to offer at Commonwealth Senior Living at Fredericksburg!
