The Office of Aging, under Franklin County Parks & Recreation, offers local transportation on the second and fourth Tuesdays of the month to grocery stores, pharmacies, and the post office. Transportation services are available to those over the age of 60 who lack transportation and are within the service area. Advance scheduling is necessary.

Call for information about transportation to weekly congregate meal sites at the Senior Center. This program is offered to seniors over the age of 60 who lack transportation. Three-day advance scheduling is requested.
